

www.loveisarose.com Introduces Thomas Kinkades Rare, Still-Life Art Now Reproduced in Stained Glass and Available for Holiday Gift Giving

Thomas Kinkade's "Lilac Bouquet" is now available in stained glass.

Carol Stream, IL (PRWeb) December 1, 2004 -- Thomas Kindades rare treasure, Lilac Bouquet, has been reproduced in stained glass and is now available at www.loveisarose.com. The 10 ¼" by 12 ¾" light-infused piece portrays the delicate petals that cluster together in an explosion of color. The artists challenge in painting Lilac Bouquet was to convey the sensual experience of the garden in the portrayal of this lavish bouquet. A still life painting by Kinkade is a rare treasure, allowing greater focus on the details. Rarely do I narrow my focus to still life, in essence bringing the glory of nature indoors," stated Kinkade.

The stained glass piece represents an art that is hundreds of years old and reflects the very essence of our culture. Artisans working in the heart of Virginia have revitalized the bygone craft of stained glass workmanship utilizing a centuries old technique used by the craftsmen of L. C. Tiffany Studios.

Thomas Kindade is Americas most collected living artist, a painter-communicator whose tranquil, light-infused paintings bring hope and joy to millions each year. Kinkade emphasizes simple pleasures and inspirational messages through his creations. Each painting the artist creates is a quiet messenger in the home, affirming the basic values of family, faith in God, and the luminous beauty of nature.

Additional stained glass art by Thomas Kinkade and additional artists including Frank Lloyd Wright, March Chagall, Monet, and Vincent van Gogh are featured at loveisarose.com.
