

Everest Poker Announces Satellites For Campionato Italiano Texas Holdem 2007 event at San Remo

Online poker's premier destination is sending players to one of Italy's most anticipated holdem poker tournaments.

Montreal, QC (PRWeb) February 19, 2007 -- Everest Poker www.everestpoker.com today announced a series of daily satellites for seats at the upcoming Campionato Italiano Texas Hold'em 2007 event, to be held at the Casino di San Remo. The tournament, one of Italy's premiere poker events, is to be held on 6-11 March, 2007.

"San Remo is a great destination for an event like this. It's a beautiful place with a lot of culture, gorgeous gardens, and even in the early spring, the beach is a must-see," said Jonathan May, Everest Poker's property manager. "It's a great getaway for our holdem poker players."

The daily poker satellites for seats at this event feature a low buy-in, making it easy for casual players to get a chance at a seat. Three direct entry poker tournaments will occur at the championship: a €300+30 event held on Thursday, 8 March; a €500+50 poker tournament held on Friday, 9 March, and a Saturday Night Main Event on 10 March that features a buy-in of €1000+100.
