HedgeCo LLC, a premier name in the hedge fund database, consulting and service industry, announced today a strategic relationship with Spicer Jeffries LLP. This partnership was designed to give clients of Spicer Jeffries access to the HedgeCo Websites Platform thus increasing their Internet and global presence.

West Palm Beach, FL (PRWeb) February 28, 2008 -- HedgeCo LLC, a premier name in the hedge fund database, consulting and service industry, announced today a strategic relationship with Spicer Jeffries LLP. This partnership was designed to give clients of Spicer Jeffries access to the HedgeCo Hedge Fund Websites Platform thus increasing their Internet and global presence.

"Through this alliance, our partners will be able to offer a much broader array of services," said Andrew Schneider, Partner at HedgeCo, LLC. "We also plan on building upon the expertise of Spicer Jeffries to lift HedgeCo Networks' products to the next level, so it's a mutually beneficial relationship."

Products being offered through this agreement include the HedgeCo Hedge Fund Website platform, the Hedge Fund Calculator analytics tool, and the opportunity to integrate with HedgeCo.Net, the premier hedge fund Internet portal. All of these services will be offered at a fraction of the usual cost.

This announcement once again shows how HedgeCo Networks continues to distinguish its company from other service providers by offering high-tech, cost-effective services and analytic tools.

"We are very excited to offer our clients this opportunity," says Bob Yurglich, Senior Partner at Spicer Jeffries. "We have had tremendous success in working with HedgeCo Networks, and we know that this partnership will substantially strengthen our position in the marketplace through what we can now offer our clients."

HedgeCo Networks is actively seeking partners in different fields to develop and deploy future products.
